

METRO LINE 2 LAUNCHED ACCORDING TO PLAN

The opening took place at a lavish ceremony attended by Prime Minister Boiko Borissov and European Commission President Jose Barroso among many other officials.

Locals embraced the new Metro station in Lavov Most which eased up their interaction with the center of the city increasing the pedestrian traffic around the intersection by threefold.

Shop Center Sofia, the new retail proposition right in front of the metro station goes through its last month construction period and will be delivered as scheduled. The reputable food retailer Carrefour is planned to initiate its operations in the Center by 15 of October.

The Center benefits from the increased commercial activity in the area due to the ongoing development of the city center, which will be concluded with the announced pedestrianization of Maria Louisa officially unifying Lavov Most with Blvd Vitosha.
